

What is Researchfish?

Researchfish is the world's leading platform for the reporting of outcomes and impacts of research.

Researchfish has a fresh new look! We have listened to the feedback of our users and have undergone a brand new redesign to include:

✔ Intuitive Layout

✔ Guided Tours

✔ Simplicity

A Cleaner User Experience

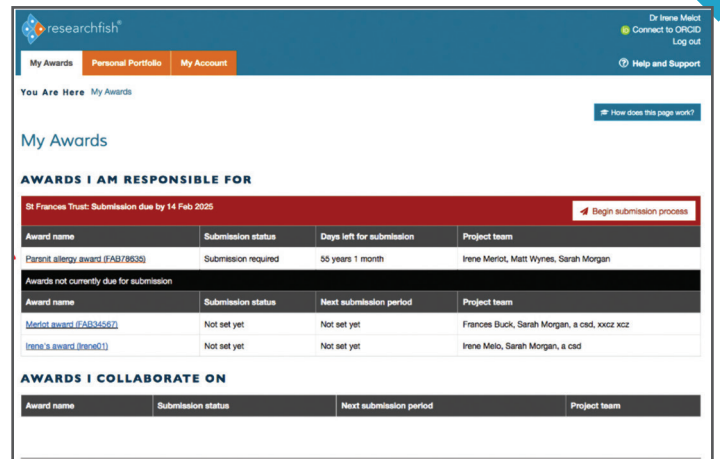

A contemporary interface with a clean, user friendly layout allowing a natural workflow around the site.

Attribution

The simple and intuitive layout of the new User Interface allows the user to easily attribute outcomes to awards while being able to identify what has already been attributed at an easy glance.

Team Management

Invite your colleagues, peers and/or delegates to help report outcomes at the touch of a button allowing your team members to contribute. Remember that the Principle Investigator will maintain overall responsibility.
