

QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY
BELFAST

PALLIATIVE CARE
RESEARCH FORUM
NORTHERN IRELAND

FUNDED BY

National Institute for Health and Care Research

Ulster
University

Northern Health
and Social Care Trust

Patient and Client Council

Your voice in health and social care

AIHPC

All Ireland Institute of Hospice and Palliative Care

South Eastern Health
and Social Care Trust

Marie
Curie

Care and support
through terminal illness

Belfast Health and Social Care Trust

The Open
University

Public Health
Agency

Supported by Kidney Care UK

CLINICAL TRIALS UNIT

Department of Health

Cross-sector partnerships for palliative and end-of- life care research

REGISTRATION NOW OPEN

Click here to register for this free event.

Closing date: 26th September, 2022

Thursday 13th October 2022

09.30 - 16.30

The Great Hall

Queen's University Belfast

A networking event for clinicians, researchers, charities, and members of the public who are interested in forming partnerships for palliative and end-of-life care research.

Conference themes

- Opening Address: Robin Swann, Health Minister
 - Palliative care research: patient perspectives
 - Applying for NIHR funding: NIHR representatives and expert researchers
 - European Association for Palliative Care: future directions for research
 - Palliative care practice and research in the COVID 19 pandemic
-

Palliative care research poster exhibition

Please send a 300 word abstract to

Dr Julie McMullan at: julie.mcmullan@qub.ac.uk

Closing date: 5th September, 2022

Sponsored by the NIHR Northern Ireland Palliative and End-of-Life Research Partnership and the Palliative Care Research Forum for Northern Ireland.

Refreshments and lunch provided