

‘Making Life Better – Where does public health meet palliative care?’ Seminar

9.30 – 12.30, Wednesday 11 September,
Chestnut Suite, Lagan Valley Island, Lisburn, BT27 4RL

- 9.30 Registrations (Tea and Coffee)
- 10.00 Setting the Scene – Policy Direction
Chris Matthews, Department of Health (TBC)
- 10.10 Palliative care delivery - the role of a public health approach
Corrina Grimes, Palliative Care in Partnership Programme / Public Health Agency
- 10.30 Perspectives from island of Ireland and Internationally
Brendan O’Hara, All Ireland Institute of Hospice and Palliative Care
- 10.50 Break
- 11.00 Public understanding in Northern Ireland - Life and Times Survey 2019
Prof Sonja McIlfratrick, Ulster University
- 11.45 Panel Discussion
- 12.15 Closing
Ed McLean, Public Health Agency
- 12.30 Lunch

To book a place, please email mlbnetwork@hscni.net with your name, organisation, name of event and any dietary requirements by the Friday 6 September

Palliative Care
in partnership